Product Description

Products Introduction

Stainless Steel Table Top Candle Hodler are made of stainless steel,we use SS430 which is around 0.7mm thickness to make it. For some components we will use different thickness of the stainless steel because of the construction requirement. Our metal lanterns let the flicker of candlelight take center stage. Solid sheet metal frames feature broad panels of clear glass. Fitted with handles, the lanterns can be easily transported to cast a warm glow where needed.
